

College Student Health-Related Behaviors

Research Topics

- College Student Health-Related Behaviors
 - Alcohol & Cannabis Use
 - Event-specific Drinking & Cannabis Use
 - Protective Behavioral Strategies
 - Sleep & Alcohol

• Example Publications

- Buckner, J. D., Walukevich, K. A., & Henslee, A. M. (2018). Event-specific cannabis use and cannabis use motives. Substance Use and Misuse (53)7, 1093-1098. doi: 10.1080/10826084.2017.1399142.
- Henslee, A. M., Irons, J. G., & Bonn-Miller, M. (2016). Celebrating St. Patrick's Day: Students' Expectations, Intent, and Behavior. Journal of Psychoactive Drugs, 1-6. doi: 10.1080/02791072.2016.1151575

College Student Alcohol and Substance Use

Contact Information:

Amber M. Henslee, PhD

Associate Professor

Department of Psychological Science

500 W. 14th Street; HSS 111

Missouri University of Science and Technology

573-341-7289

hensleea@mst.edu

Keywords

- College Student; Alcohol; Protective Strategies; Event-specific; Student Perceptions

Recognitions/Achievements

- e-Fellow (Faculty Fast Track pilot program), College of Arts, Business, and Sciences, Missouri S&T
- Faculty Service Learning Award, Missouri S&T, 2013-2014
- Faculty Teaching Award, Missouri S&T, 2012, 2014, 2016 & 2018
- Outstanding Teaching Award, Missouri S&T, 2016-17, 2017-18